Jess - all work underground at the Red n Bonita is complete for this season. The Gold King work will not occur as previously planned. We need to adjust plans and look at next year.

Thank you again for being available.

Steve,

Thanks for the heads up and the phone call. We are prepared to provide immediate response. Hope we can get a face to face sometime this summer, I would not mind making another trip up there to the mines to accomplish that if it works out.
